

RulesManager Advanced

Advanced Training for RulesManager Application

Audience:

This Advanced RulesManager training is for Advanced Maximo Configuration persons and System Administrators.

Purpose:

This is Client Site training, which is a Deep Dive into advanced RulesManager features and functions. This is a custom class with several options. Please contact TRM for more information or to customize a training course for your organization.

Seminar Agenda: This training course is designed to be conducted on site at the Clients facility or at any TRM facility. Listed below are examples of possible training course topics.

- Advance interaction with the UI
 - invoking actions off buttons
 - overwriting button actions
 - changing tabs
- Debugging beyond logging statements
- Utilization of debugger and operations console
- Calling native Java methods and what to call
- Rule loop prevention
- How to create and utilize JavaScript libraries
- Integration development
- Creating Walk Through's and Load Tests
- Walk through of advanced case exercises